Student Expenses

Expenses for going to school and living in Southern California may depend on the personal spending habits of the students. The college tuition and fees may vary by year. Current tuition and fees, and approximate living expenses, are as follows (transportation to and from the U.S. not included). El Camino College does not have living accommodations on campus.

ECLA

*Tuition and Fees for two sessions, 16 weeks	$3,300 ($1,650 per session)
Apt. Rent (5 months)	$3,250
Food (5 months)	$1,500
Books & Supplies (5 months)	$ 500
Medical Insurance (for 2 sessions)	$ 200 ($100 for each session)
Personal Expenses (5 months)	$1,000
Total	$9,650

*(Tuition fees may increase for Fall 2003)

Confidential Financial Statement

All students who want to study under an F-1 VISA at El Camino College must complete the statement below. To issue an I-20 to prospective students, the college must be assured that sufficient funds are available to meet all tuition and living expenses for the duration of their studies. The minimum requirement for the El Camino College Language Academy is $10,000.

Please report the funds in U.S. Dollars with a Verification of Funds letter from the sponsor's bank, citing the name of the account holder. Documents must have been issued within three months of application.

Source:	Amount	Name	Relation
Family Funds	$ _____	_____	_____
Personal Funds	$ _____	_____	_____
Government or Sponsor *	$ _____	_____	_____

* If sponsored by a government agency, then the letter of assurance from said agency must be included.

Falsification of any part of this document may subject the student to later disciplinary action.

FUTURE EDUCATION PLANS:

If you plan to continue your education at El Camino College after attending the Language Academy, you should be aware that there are additional requirements. Be prepared to declare your field of study so it can be added to your I-20; for example, you may indicate Business, Music, or Fashion, etc. Please examine the list below and make sure that you bring the documents when you come to the ECLA Orientation.
